

SAS-BI SME (Camp Hill, PA & Pittsburgh, PA)

Location

- Camp Hill, PA
- Pittsburgh, PA

Description

- Acting in an Expert or Cross-departmental Lead capacity:
 - Design, development, testing and maintenance of highly complex applications, working closely with business staff and leading a technical staff. Incumbent will be responsible for project management and will be accountable for the timeliness and quality of the end product. Incumbent may also be required to provide expert input or design, development, testing, and maintenance, as needed, using SAS, SQL, JAVA or other tools. Design, development, testing and maintenance of highly complex data management systems or software, including extraction, transformation and dissemination of data, to include working effectively with customers and end users concerning data management systems or output, utilizing an expert understanding of key business and technical issues. Provide end user support or lead staff in user support activities. Specific duties include; identifying issues involving software, programming or tools and designing and applying fixes; training groups of new or current staff on new software, processes or procedures in a training room setting. Will be asked to develop training materials

Provide input and/or serve as a backup and collaborate with departmental primary systems architect in maintaining technical infrastructure for division, including server upgrades, software installation, enhancements, maintenance or other issues. Collaborate with ISG staff on all hardware, software or performance issues affecting division staff or systems, to include the development and fostering of positive business relationships with key contacts in ISG.

Serve as a technical liaison between department and other departments within division, providing guidance on all areas of technology relevant to the division. Interact with departmental and divisional management on projects or issues. Follow all divisional and corporate project management guidelines, including ability to function as a project team leader, project manager or program manager. Lead quality improvement teams focused on review of all current technology relevant within division and provide suggested improvements to management. Interact with all levels of management on issues gleaned from periodic quality reviews and recommend improvements. Prepare or provide expert input in the preparation business cases for potential funding of new initiatives within division.

- Required Qualifications
 - High School / GED
 - experience in developing or following project management plans and standard project management procedures.
 - experience in application development or data management.
 - experience using SAS-BI.
 - experience using SQL.
 - technical writing experience to include: design documents, position papers and status reports
- Preferred Qualifications
 - experience in user support
 - experience in collaborating with end users on application or software requirements and design.
 - JAVA experience

Company will assist with relocation but will not offer any visa sponsorship.

Qualified candidates should contact:

Mike Foster, Senior Recruiter
The RightThing, LLC – 1285 Drummers Lane; Wayne, PA 19087
PH: 6102633030 x4567 EM: Mike.Foster@rightthinginc.com