

WYOMING

Community Benefit Requirement

Wyoming law does not expressly require nonprofit hospitals to provide community benefits.

Minimum Community Benefit Requirement

Wyoming law does not expressly require nonprofit hospitals to provide community benefits.

Community Benefit Reporting Requirement

Wyoming does not require nonprofit hospitals to report community benefits.

Community Health Needs Assessment

Wyoming does not require nonprofit hospitals to conduct community health needs assessments.

Community Benefit Plan/Implementation Strategy

Wyoming does not require nonprofit hospitals to develop community benefit plans or implementation strategies.

Financial Assistance Policy

Wyoming does not require nonprofit hospitals to adopt or implement financial assistance policies.

Financial Assistance Policy Dissemination

Wyoming does not require nonprofit hospitals to adopt or implement financial assistance policies.

Limitations on Charges, Billing, and Collections

Wyoming does not limit nonprofit hospital charges, billing, or collection practices.

Income Tax Exemption

Wyoming does not have a corporate income tax.

Property Tax Exemption

Wyoming property tax law exempts property used for hospitals “to the extent they are not used for private profit.” Wyo. Stat. § 39-11-105\(a\)\(xxv\).

Sales Tax Exemption

Wyoming law exempts nonprofit hospitals from state sales tax.

Wyoming law exempts sales to organizations that have been determined by the Internal Revenue Service to be exempt from taxation. Sales and Use Tax Exemptions for Nonprofits.

